

MARTINSVILLE BULLETIN

Huey V. Triplett, Jr.

Died Sunday, June 13, 2010

Jun 15, 2010

Huey V. "Junior" Triplett Jr., 59, of 130 Shawnee Drive, Collinsville, died Sunday, June 13, 2010, at his home.

He was born June 1, 1951, in Martinsville to Huey V. Triplett and Annie Mae Triplett Hill. In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his wife, Sabine B. Triplett; a brother, Donald Triplett, and a sister, Linda T. Sparks.

Triplett was a Army veteran, and he retired from Stone Container Corp. with 15 years of service. He was of the Baptist faith.

Surviving are a son, Johnny Triplett of Martinsville; a daughter, Nicole Triplett Callahan of Martinsville; two brothers, Robert Triplett of Collinsville and Michael Triplett of Martinsville; and one granddaughter.

The funeral will be at 2 p.m. today at Roselawn Chapel Funeral Home with the Rev. J.D. Harmon officiating. Burial will be in Roselawn Burial Park with military honors by the Martinsville-Henry County Veterans Honor Guard.

The family will receive friends at the funeral home for one hour before the service today.

Jun 16, 2010

The funeral for Huey V. "Junior" Triplett Jr., 59, of Collinsville, who died June 13, 2010, was held Tuesday at Roselawn Chapel Funeral Home with the Rev. J.D. Harmon officiating. Burial was in Roselawn Burial Park with military honors by the Martinsville-Henry County Veterans Honor Guard.

Pallbearers were members of the honor guard: Thomas Spencer, Lee Fain, Bud Farmer, Keith Hudson, Paul Shivley, Mike Kodenski and David Kipfinger.