

Retiree Services Office Fort Bragg, NC

Our mission is to provide quality service regarding benefits, entitlements, information and referral to retirees, their family as well as active duty Soldiers and their family preparing for retirement. The Retiree Service Office (RSO) also publishes the Ft. Bragg Retired Army Newsletter; advises and supports the North Carolina Army Retiree Council, and develops installation level policies and procedures for the Survivor Benefit Plan (SBP) program.

The North Carolina Army Retiree Council (NCARC) consists of members who are selected from applications submitted by Army Retirees residing within the State of North Carolina. The Council objectives are: Maintain contact with all the North Carolina Army Retirees. Participate in programs that concern the well-being of Retirees. Provide the Army an insight into the problems and needs of Retirees and develop a means of participating and communicating with the Active Army at all levels. Provide Retirees an opportunity to analyze and exert influence regarding decisions, policies and laws which effect Retirees. Make NCARC more effective, attractive, and visible to increase Retiree participation through the State of North Carolina. Regular NCARC meetings are conducted quarterly. For more information contact the Ft Bragg Retirement Service Office at 910-396-5304.
